TEATRO UNIVERSITARIO DE LA HABANA YARINI

'Yarini' is a Greek tragedy that explores the figure of the pimp in Cuba, inspired by the true story of Alberto Yarini Ponce de León. The play draws on popular Cuban culture, including elements of Yoruba mythology, where the gods control the fate of the characters. The play is set in an environment where the real and the magical mingle, showing the influence of supernatural forces in the lives of the characters. Yarini, an arrogant and macho man, is caught between his pride and his love for a woman, which leads him to a tragic destiny. The play is a portrait of the Cuba of the time, with its social contradictions, popular beliefs and strong fatalism.
