TEATRO ACTORES DE BARRANQUILLA LA MUERTE NO TRIUNFO AQUI

The play 'La muerte no triunfó aquí' was a Finalist in the National Playwriting Award of Dramaturgy of Colombia in 1995. The play is a farce that reflects the popular world of the Caribbean, portraying cheerful and lively characters.

Cubi and Chachachá are a young couple madly in love, for them there is only the here and now. This romance is altered by the presence of Isaías, a man who is in love with Cubi and wants to conquer her heart at all costs. La Cubi rejects Isaías and he decides to get El Chachachá out of her way by summoning Death to take the young man from this world. El Chachachá then has to confront Death, and it is here that he emerges as the prototype of the man who, with his resourcefulness and desire for life, manages to neutralise Death's unwelcome presence in his life.

The story is recreated using elements typical of the carnival of Barranquilla, such as music, costumes and make-up, all of which make the staging something striking and eye-catching.
