NATIONAL PUPPET THEATRE OF ARMENIA BUKOWSKI

The story of writer Charles Bukowki. The play tells the story of his life. From Charles's childhood, his family, what shaped him and how it shaped him as a person. About the love and need for alcohol that accompanied him throughout his life.

Of a thousand women and one Linda. Dreams and desires. A difficult path that was also full of surprises. Documentary information about his life and Bukowski's most sincere poems. And the bluebird that was always in her chest. Find what you love and let it kill you.
